Volume 58 | Issue 1
January 2023

2023 is off and running! I love this time of year!

A new year means a new beginning. A fresh start. Sure, there are things we bring with us from 2022 that hang on our shoulders like baggage. But even with some baggage from past years, this one is fresh, new, and I'm ready for another go at it. I hope you are, too. I don't know what 2023 will hold for any of us, but I know that as long as God gives us breath, we should make the effort to grow a little more each day, go a little further this year than last, and expect to grow stronger and more faithful in our walk with God.

PERSONAL GROWTH

Read Psalm 139:1-6

Our first responsibility is our Personal Growth. The old saying says, "If it's to be it's up to me!" Well, not everything is up to you, but the first step is in your court.

The first part of Psalm 139 lets us know how well God knows us. He knows everything about us! 2023 can be a time where we get totally honest with God and get to work on overcoming the things that are holding us back from walking closer with Him.

Verses 5 and 6 let us know that God loves us anyway. I love to consider this truth:

GOD IS ALREADY IN TOMORROW SO I DON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT IT.

Get into your Bible. Study it, meditate on it, pray for understanding – and GROW.

CHURCH GROWTH

Read Ephesians 4:1-6

This is one of my favorite passages in scripture. It tells me how to walk in relationship with other believers in the Body of Christ – the Church. Jesus died for His Bride (the Church) and He wants every believer to be connected to His Church.

Take a close look at verse 3, "...making every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace."

Make the commitment to BUILD UNITY & PROTECT UNITY in your church.

This requires humility, gentleness, patience, and love so each of us must think of yourself "LESS" and others "MORE." If we all do this, we'll see wonderful church growth all around our association in 2023. Unity in Christ must be a priority.

GROW in SHARING

Read 2 Timothy 1:6-14

I've heard this quote for years and hope you'll like as much as I do:

"I want my life to be so committed and faithful that people who know me but don't know God will want to know God because they know me."

I want to be so unashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ that I will boldly and gladly share it, even if it means suffering.

Christian, live your life in such a way that it will invite others to inquire about your faith. Then, TELL THEM the GOOD NEWS!

We have a great opportunity in this new year. Let's GET up, LOOK up, and SPEAK up so others will WAKE up to salvation.

Bro. Andy

MINISTRY NEWS

December was a great month of ministry and celebration. I enjoyed writing the Advent Devotionals for the month and was encouraged to have so many receiving the daily emails. The first week of Advent I was privileged to fill in for Dr. Lamar Truitt at Lakeview.

On December 6, we held our Annual Pastor's Christmas party at Baptist Tabernacle. Thank to Pastor Jimmy McMillan and the Baptist Tabernacle folks for hosting us and thanks to Jeff Higgins and Higgins Funeral Home for sponsoring this fun and encouraging night of celebration. We had a great time of fellowship together. I wrote my and read my own Troup Baptist Association edition of "The Night Before Christmas" filled with the antics of our pastors and staff in preparation for Christmas. We celebrated our grand prize winners with a gift from the Association. Our Pastor's Wife winner was Mrs. Linda Dukes (Concord) and our Pastor's winner was Dr. Lamar Truitt. (Lakeview) (pictured below)

On December 15th, Kim and I attended the immersive Christmas experience at Rosemont Baptist (Pastor Adam Camp) called "THE ONE." It was an incredible outdoor telling of God's plan to send Jesus from the dawn of creation. It was a beautiful presentation of the Christmas story in an outdoor, creative, and spectacular format. Thanks Rosemont BC.

On December 19th, our Pastor's Fellowship went out to spread Christmas joy to our community. We sang carols and Christmas songs at Poplar Creek and Vernon Woods Assisted living homes. It was a wonderful time sharing with the residents and talking with friends and family we have known for years. And let me brag on the guys for a minute – THE GUYS CAN SING! Wow! I'm thankful for their willingness to go and share their love and joy with others. Our plan is to continue going out to serve once a quarter as we encourage each other and sharpen one another in the Lord.

Finally, I was also privileged to fill in on January 1 at Teaver Road Baptist for Pastor Ben Turner. It was a great service with a wonderful group of kind and encouraging people. We kicked off the new year with 3 prayers related to my article on the front page. We stopped and prayed for our Personal growth, our commitment to the Church, and our commitment to be a witness in 2023. I pray you will join us in that prayer of commitment.

I'm looking forward to a wonderful year serving you and the TBA churches. I pray for you and hope you will continue to pray for me.

The Food Closet gave away 151 boxes of food, 154 meals, and 120 backpacks with weekend food for children. The Clothes Closet gave out 38 coats and served 103 individuals. The Clothes Closet is in need of coats. So, if you have one to donate, BT would appreciate it. • On December 6, BT hosted the Pastors' and Wives' Christmas Dinner for the Troup Baptist Association. Creekside - In December, twenty-five members went to Clark's Chapel for the play, "From the Christ Child to the Judgement." • On the second Sunday of December they held a candlelight ornament service. Members gave some moving testimonies. • On December 17, members enjoyed breakfast prepared by the Brotherhood. Afterwards they made ninety fruit bags and distributed them to their shut-ins in the community. That evening the choir members enjoyed a supper hosted by choir director, Chris Studdard. Everyone enjoyed games and fellowship.

- The choir presented a Christmas musical, after which Santa came to visit the children. Each child received a gift.
- Creekside members and guests enjoyed a New Years' Eve singing with "The Seekers" singing and praying the new year in. The house was full!

Dunson - December was a very blessed month for Dunson as they shared their blessings with others. Christmas gifts were provided for a family of three children and Dunson members had so much fun purchasing these items.

- After the Christmas musical and luncheon a group loaded up on the bus and Pastor Kenneth took them caroling to their shut-ins. Mr. Kenneth Bridges did an excellent job leading the carols. WMU members made beautiful goody trays of homemade pound cake, candies, cookies, and muffins to deliver to their shut-ins along with Christmas cards from church members.

Church News & Announcements

FBC Hogansville - The Youth had their annual Christmas party on Saturday, December 10. After a good meal, the group boarded the church van and went to Newnan to look at Christmas lights! It was a great time of food, fellowship, and a fun way to celebrate Jesus' birth! Other groups, among them Ladies Under Construction, Prime Timers, and Grapevine Sunday School Class, also had special celebrations during this joyous season.

- A hot dog supper and dessert auction was held on December 11 to benefit the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. The auction was well attended and great fun! "We give God the glory that this event brought in a little over $1,200. Since this offering goes entirely to foreign missions, it is exciting to think about sharing God's word around the world just by making a few sweets."
- During the morning service on December 18 the Adult Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lynn Campbell, performed the Cantata "We Call it Christmas Because of Jesus." The solo part was sung by Isabella McGhee. We appreciate the dedication of these individuals who gave their time to practice and shared their talents in bringing this beautiful performance.

- On the chilly Wednesday evening of December 21, a group of hardy folks from church went Christmas caroling. They visited some of our members and friends who are not able to come to church on a regular basis. The singers were blessed to be able to share the love of Jesus with others and to help their Christmas to be a little more merry, and those who were visited had smiles on their faces!

- The candlelight service on Christmas Eve was beautiful. The music and message filled everyone's heart with the true meaning of Christmas. One of the highlights of the special music was provided by several of our youngest girls who sang "Away in a Manger." Then Sondra Lee and her granddaughter Willow McGhee sang "Where's the Line to See Jesus." The candlelight setting gave Pastor Greg's message and the ordinance of communion a special significance.
- A grateful "Thank You" to those who decorated the church so beautifully for Christmas and also to those who took their time to put things back to normal for January.
- A special thanks to Bill Dollar and Dustin Chapman for the Lighted Cross they fashioned for the church yard. It shows the heart of Christmas.

- FBC Hogansville members are looking forward to where God leads in 2023.

On The Lighter Side

An antique dealer is walking through town and sees a cat drinking milk from a saucer in a shop window. He is shocked when he realizes that the saucer is very rare and expensive. He enters the shop and asks the owner, "Hey, I really like the cat. Would you be willing to sell it to me?"

The store owner replies, "Not for sale."

The antique dealer thinking quickly responds, "I'll give you $100 for it."

The shop owner agrees and the antique dealer grabs the cat. He acts like he is about to leave then adds, "Oh, would you mind throwing in the saucer, the cat seems to like it."

The shop owner replies, "No, that's my lucky saucer. I've sold hundreds of cats since I got it."

Colin Elliott from Ireland will be performing at Mountville Baptist Church on February 15 at 6:30 pm.
