Permeate

I love it when a word captures my attention. I'm not entirely sure why it happens, but I've learned that God usually tries to teach me something when it does, so I spend some time listening and learning. It happened again a few weeks ago. The word this time is PERMEATE.

I often walk into the house and am greeted with the newest scent Kim has purchased from B&BW for the plug-ins throughout. That new scent gets my attention, and I soak it in for a moment before trying to guess what it is and what it triggers in my memory bank of life. The sweet smell "permeates" the room.

Another way of thinking about permeation is mixing colors to paint or ingredients in a recipe. When the new color or additive works into the mix, it impacts what you see and taste. It does this in such a way that once it works through, you can't remove it. There is almost always a permanent bond when permeation occurs in a mixture.

But I'm not smart enough to be a scientist, patient enough to be a cook, and, as Kim says, "too messy to be a painter." So, I'll stay in my lane and write to you about how incredible the impact is when the Spirit of God permeates a life. It is a powerful thing!

Inwardly, when we stop what we can call compartmentalizing or segmenting life into what's ours to control and what is God's to control, we begin to take a giant step toward living and experiencing what God truly wants for us. His desire is for all of me and all of you. So, when I resist His loving work in every part of my life, I'm the one that's missing out. I'm the one who suffers from powerlessness and frustration. I miss out on being a part of what God wants to do around me, with me, and through me.

I've learned, and I hope you have, too, that God is not holding out on me. Instead, He's waiting for me to surrender to Him and allow the Holy Spirit to permeate my life in a way that makes a real impact.

My purpose in writing this month is this: What happens when the LOVE OF GOD permeates my life?

What the world defines as "love" leaves a terrible taste in my mouth. It's a counterfeit of what God says, that love is in His Word and what He shows us in His nature and character.

Let me give you a couple of examples that the Lord has laid on my heart in the last few weeks related to my word "permeate" and the concept of "love."

First is the story of Mary and her jar of expensive perfume in John 12. The Bible says that at a dinner, "Mary therefore took a pound of expensive ointment made from pure nard, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume."

Jesus' love for Mary had so permeated her life that she took her greatest treasure and poured it out on Jesus' feet. The fragrance "permeated" the room! While all of this stirred those in the house, Jesus responded in love because He knew that in just a few days, He would pour out His love for Mary and all of humanity when He was broken and spilled out for us on the cross.

The second example was that day in the upper room when the Holy Spirit fell on those gathered. They were still trying to understand what had transpired over the last 50 days, but they were obediently waiting in the upper room as Jesus told them to. Then, power-filled by the Holy Spirit of God, they went from an unsure crowd to a bold bunch of Gospel-preaching believers taking the love of God to the world. The same Spirit of God that permeated their life resides in me, you, and everyone who has trusted in Jesus as Savior and Lord for their salvation.

When the LOVE of God permeates our lives, we will show the same love He has already shown us. We will know what it means to love others like Jesus taught us.

What is that love like? Jesus reveals the answer to that question as He showed TRUE LOVE through His obedient life and in His sacrificial death. It's stated clearly in 1 Corinthians 13 when it tells us that LOVE is...

Patient and kind.

Not envious or boasting.

Not arrogant or rude.

Not selfish, irritable, or resentful.

It does not rejoice in wrongdoing but instead rejoices in the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things.

Love never fails.

This month, I pray that you will allow the Love of Christ to PERMEATE your life and live in the power of the Holy Spirit. Love and blessings to you!

Make a special effort to express your love to those closest to you this year. Like the great coach said, "Leave no doubt" that they are loved by you!

Bro. Andy

MINISTRY NEWS

January was a great month of ministry and service in the Association. All of our ministries at the TBA Ministry Center are up and running which include: Circles of Troup County (Thursdays), Strengthening Families (Tuesdays), and TOPS - Taking Off Pounds Sensibly (Tuesdays). It's good to see our facility being used to have a direct impact on the community through these ministries and groups. If you'd like to know more about any of them, or be involved, let us know and we will let you know how you can plug in.

Kim and I enjoyed worshipping with the good folks at Hillcrest Baptist (Jim Butler), Franklin Road Baptist (Trace Lasher), Grace Baptist (Donnie Benefield), and Shoal Creek Baptist (Anthony Hovey). I also was privileged to speak on the work of the TBA at Dunson Baptist's (Kenneth Cole) Sunday evening service. On a personal note, I've enjoyed filling in as a Sunday School teacher at Franklin Road during this month and working with our English as a Second Language group on Sunday evenings. I attended the Men's Ministry Lunch at First Baptist late in the month and was inspired and challenged by Pastor Marty Carne's powerful message on Biblical Leadership from Joshua's life.

I closed out the month at the GBMB AMS RETREAT in Forsyth, GA, with the other AMS' around the state. It was a powerful time of inspiration, prayer, and learning and I'm thankful for your giving toward making these type of opportunities possible. We were privileged to have two days with North American Mission Board's church revitalization specialist John Mark Clifton, the leading voice in championing normative* churches. (*churches under 200). The latest statistics tell us that 90% of SBC churches are 199 or under in attendance. Also, 78% of SBC churches are under 100. These churches are vital in the work of God in reaching people to Christ.

It's also been a great month in our Pastor's Fellowship Meetings on Monday mornings. First Choice Women's Center was kind enough to provide a Venucci's lunch for us on January 8 as they shared with us information about the great work going on at FCWC here in LaGrange. Special thanks to Director Michelle Thompson and Board Members John Oliver (Rosemont) and Jason Jones (Western Heights) for sharing with us about LIFE.

CAMP ROCKRIDGE

It's My Favorite Place!

At this month's Camp Rockridge Board Meeting we welcomed in our new Trustees for the next 3 years and heard a great report of all that is going on at the Camp. Our new Director (Rev. Rhodes Skinner) and our Camp Manager (Noah Skinner) are doing a great job and moving us into the year with optimism and excitement. Updates will be taking place to several of the buildings and the other cabin so things will have a touch of newness when Summer camp gets here.

Do you have construction skills to donate? Would you like to donate toward camp for scholarships or construction? Give me a call at the office and let's talk about ways YOU can help.

Your TBA Trustees:

God is at Work on the LaGrange College Campus!

Please continue to pray for our Baptist Collegiate Ministry.

TESTIMONIES

This semester our Leadership Team has been sharing their testimony during the BCM Monday Night Bible Studies and it has been a powerful time. Students are responding each week and sharing how God is bringing them out of times of depression and darkness and into JOY and the LIGHT! Please keep praying as the Lord continues to bless with His presence each week.

ADOPT-A-WEEK

I still need a few churches to ADOPT-A-WEEK for snacks on Monday night at 8pm. Special thanks to East LaGrange Baptist and Franklin Road Baptist for helping so far.

Would your church like to provide light snacks (fruit, cookies, brownies, etc...) for the group? This is a simple way to support and show the students some love during the busy semester. God is blessing the group and they are working and serving to reach other students with the Gospel.

First Baptist Church on the Square will welcome Jada Edwards for their annual spring Devoted Ladies Event on Thursday, March 7. This annual event is hosted by the church's women's ministry team, and all are welcome. "The goal of our ministry is for all women to grow closer to Christ and one another. Jada is an experienced author, speaker, Bible teacher, and mentor. Teaching the Bible is one of her greatest joys. She is a huge advocate of discipleship and living on mission. She is even nerdy about personality and motivation assessments. She has committed her life to equipping women of all ages with practical, biblical truths to help them live more genuine lives.

In addition to Jada's teaching, the musical worship will be led by Jourdan Johnson and her ensemble who frequently sing at Passion City Church in Atlanta. This will be their third time to lead worship for the Devoted spring event and they are favorites among those in attendance.

On The Lighter Side

A man walking along a California beach was deep in prayer. Suddenly the sky clouded above his head and, in a booming voice, the Lord said, "Because you have TRIED to be faithful to me in all ways, I will grant you one wish."

The man said, "Build a bridge to Hawaii so I can drive over anytime I want."

The Lord said, "Your request is very materialistic. Think of the enormous challenges for that kind of undertaking, the supports to the bottom of the Pacific, the concrete and steel it would take! It will nearly exhaust every natural resource I have made. I can do it, but it is hard for me to justify your desire for worldly things. Take a little more time and think of something that would honor and glorify me."

The man thought about it for a long time. Finally he said, "Lord, I wish that I could understand my wife. I want to know how she feels inside, what she's thinking when she gives me the silent treatment, why she cries, what she means when she says nothing's wrong, and how I can make her truly happy."

The Lord replied, "You want two lanes or four lanes on that bridge?"
